Jack in the Pulpit

THIS AND THAT

Hey all,

Anderson has an annual Community Thanksgiving Service. This year it is being held at St. John's United Methodist (just two doors down the street from Grace). It has a community combined choir including our own choir. The offering will be for Family Promise and the Soup Kitchen (of which I am the vice chair of the board, and we are in need of an additional $10k of funding a year). It is on Sunday November 19th at 5pm.

As part of this Season of Giving Thanks remember to put something on the Wall of Thanks in the Morris hallway. Giving thanks is always a choice.

A NEW SUNDAY CLASS on C.S. LEWIS begins this month and will run through December. Lewis believed any form of story could be used to express the Gospel. We will be reading two of his stories, one using the genre of fantasy and the other of mythology. We begin Sunday November 5th at 9:30 AM. Come having read The Lion the Witch and the Wardrobe. The following Sundays up to the end of December we will be reading and discussing what many consider Lewis's best story, Till We Have Faces. We will be reading about 60 pages a week. They are both very easy to read while being delightful and deep, Lewis had that gift. Get your copies, start reading and let's talk awhile!

Pax,

Fr. Jack

Mental Wellness Group meet November 3rd and November 17th of the month in the Parish Library from 1:30 -3:00 pm. For more information speak to Deacon Mary Jeffers. All are Welcome!

St. Catherine' Guild will meet in the parish all on Monday, November 6th at 2:00 p.m. Our guest will be Amanda Manly, Director of Development and Communications for Safe Harbor, a non-profit organization which provides services for victims of violence and their children in Anderson, Greenville, Oconee, and Pickens counties. Ms. Manly will conduct a unique educational workshop, In Her Shoes, which will allow us to connect temporarily to the day-to-day reality of women who experience interpersonal violence. The program will last an hour and will be followed by a brief business meeting and refreshments. All are welcome. Please join us!
