

Celebrant On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said,

People “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Celebrant After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said.

People “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Celebrant Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving.

People Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Celebrant Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

People Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace;

Celebrant And at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

People and Celebrant

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN,

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Then may be sung or said

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. The holy for the holy.

After Communion

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved, as to love. For it is in giving that we receive. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned. And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

WE LISTEN

First Reading - Read in Unison - Cantic of Brother Sun

Most High, all powerful, good Lord, to you be praise, glory, honor, and all blessings.

Only to you, Most High, do they belong and no one is worthy to call upon your name.

May you be praised, my Lord, with all your creatures, especially brother sun, through whom you lighten the day for us.

He is beautiful and radiant with great splendor, and he signifies you, O Most High.

Be praised, my Lord, for brother wind and by air and clouds, clear skies and all weathers, by which you give sustenance to your creatures,

Be praised, my Lord, for brother fire, by whom the night is illumined for us; he is beautiful and cheerful, full of power and strength.

Be praised, my Lord, for sister, our mother earth, who sustains and governs us and produces diverse fruits and colored flowers and grass.

Be praised, my Lord, by all those who forgive for love of you and bear weakness and tribulation.

Blessed are those who endure in peace; For by you Most High, they will be crowned.

Be praised, my Lord, for our sister, the death of the body, from whom no one living is able to flee; woe to those who are dying in mortal sin.

Blessed are those are found doing your most holy will, for the second death will do them no harm.

Praise and bless my Lord and give him thanks and serve him with great humility.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"
